Climbing for All

Disability Awareness for
Climbing Instructors

Friday 10th November 2017
or Friday 9th February 2018

9.30am-4.30pm

Climbing for All is a one day course providing an introduction to instructing disabled people in climbing. The purpose of the course is to provide instructors and coaches with increased confidence and skills to enable people with disabilities to experience and enjoy climbing. The course also provides an opportunity to test your instructing and coaching skills in new territories. For more information on the course programme please get in touch.

As well as receiving 25% off the course cost, MTA members receive 1 CPD point for attending
